Tegeltija: Covid-19 vaccines will be free for priority groups – N1

📅 January 11, 2021

BiH Council of Ministers Chairman Zoran Tegeltija said the Entities and BiH paid the entire cost for the purchase of vaccines through the Covax facility and that the first vaccines will arrive by the end of the month. He also said that vaccinations would be free for priority groups.

Answering the question delegates' questions from BiH's House of Representatives, Tegeltija said that the country, meaning the entities and the Brcko District paid $12,997,000 for 1,232,000 coronavirus vaccines and that the BiH Council of Ministers (as the state government is officially called) through the BiH Ministry of Civil Affairs provided two million Bosnian marks for the transport, storage and vaccine delivery.
